

Rumba, samba, and mambo to Latin Music aboard MSC POESIA

What could be more simpatico than sunny Caribbean ports, balmy breezes and the lively salsa rhythms of Carlos Oliva y Los Sobrinos del Juez (The Judge's Nephews)?

Time magazine credits Carlos Oliva as the precursor to the popular musical movement known as the "Miami Sound", a unique fusion of rock, jazz, samba, son, guaracha and other Caribbean rhythms. Performances feature traditional salsa dance hits and Carlos' unique arrangements of pop and disco favorites with a Latin beat.

Salsa dance lessons and live performances by our hot line-up of Latin music stars are sure to add plenty of ¡sabor y ritmo! – flavor and rhythm – to this Latin music festival at sea!
